

ISEParty
Inspiration beyond nations

The 2014 ISEParty was held on the Halloween on Oct. 31, 2013. This party is organized by Office of International and Cross-Strait Affairs (OIA) with assistances from two Student Groups, Ambassador Elite (AE) and International Friendship Buddy (IFB). The theme of this year is “Inspiration beyond Nations” implying the spirit of ISEP students that transcend the boundary of countries and languages to bravely pursue their dream.

5 incoming ISEP students and 1 former ISEP student plus 10 outgoing Taiwanese students were at this exclusive party. They represent countries of UK, USA, Nicaragua, Finland, and Taiwan. Together with the Dean of OIA, Dr. Victor Lin, and the faculty, they enjoyed a delicious lunch buffet with music and exciting games while also sharing their unique abroad experiences and stories inspiring local students who expect to travel through ISEP in the near future.

While playing a guessing game, the party reached its climax as the losing team got their faces painted. Exclamations and laughter were everywhere. The Winnie team, instead, brought away a handful of Halloween candies. Students were also interviewed and videoed for speaking loud their feedback at PU for future ISEP promotion.

This extraordinary and significant party will be held once a semester to create a “home” feeling for ISEP incoming students as well as an “International” atmosphere for outgoing ones.
